

Running a meeting that ends on time: notes

Agenda: what we decided last time, what we must decide today, who does what, when we meet next.

Open with the one decision that matters most.

Close by reading back every task with a name and a date.